

Agenda

8:00–8:30 AM

Registration

8:30–9:00 AM

Introductions and Overview

9:00–9:15 AM

The Shared Threat: Strangulation, First Responder Risk, and Homicide Prevention

Primary Outcome: Participants recognize strangulation offenders as a shared lethal threat to both victims and responders.

9:15–10:15 AM

Perpetrator Tactics: How Offenders Scramble Communication

Primary Outcome: Participants recognize confusion as strategy—not accident.

10:15–10:30 AM — BREAK

10:30–11:30 AM

Victim Behavior as Survival Intelligence & Setting the State for a Successful Prosecution

Primary Outcome: Participants interpret victim behavior as risk information, not resistance.

11:30 AM–12:00 PM

Hidden Risks: Strangulation as a High-Lethality Event

12:00–1:15 PM — LUNCH

1:15–3:15 PM

Hands-On Scenarios & Attendee Application: Documentation That Prevents Homicide

Identifying Danger, Investigating Injuries, Predominant Aggressor Assessment

Primary Outcome: Participants improve decision accuracy at the scene.

Primary Outcome: Participants recognize when danger is escalating toward homicide.

Primary Outcome: Participants understand that documentation interrupts offender control.

3:15–3:30 PM — BREAK

3:30–4:15 PM

Debrief & Shifting Scene Dynamics with a Multidisciplinary Response

4:15–4:30PM PM

Closing and Evaluations